Leroy Keyes

Leroy Keyes, a 1969 Purdue graduate, has been celebrated for many accomplishments throughout his life.

Leroy Keyes began his career at Purdue and was an All-American in 1967 and 1968 and finished second in the 1968 Heisman Trophy voting. He also played five seasons in the NFL for the Philadelphia Eagles and the Kansas City Chiefs. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1990. He is an Assistant Director for the John Purdue Club. We are honored to have him speak to all of us during this special day's events.

Some of the other celebrities in attendance:

Curtis Painter, the current Purdue Quarterback. In 2006 and 2007 he was awarded the Manning Award Watch List and was honored as honorable mention All-Big Ten by coaches and media along with many other awards.

Chris Clopton, a four-year football letter winner. He had his greatest success as a senior on the 2000 Big Ten Championship and Rose Bowl team. During that same time he broke the record for the most kickoff return yards in Purdue history at 1,553 yards. He is currently an Assistant Director for the John Purdue Club.

Brittany Dildine, known as a double threat in Boilermaker women's basketball and volleyball. She was named MVP of the Mortar Board Premier in 2006 and was ranked 3rd in Big Ten in aces both her junior and senior year in volleyball.
